

KENTUCKY CORRECTIONS Policies and Procedures	Policy Number 27-01-02 Date Filed Not on File with LRC	Total Pages 3 Effective Date August 1, 2006
References/Authority KRS 61.872, Chap. 18A, 439.480, 439.420, 439.310, 439.380 101 KAR Chap. 2 P&P ACA 3-3056, 3-3057, 3-3061, 3-3062, 3-3063, 3-3065, 3-3067	Subject PROBATION AND PAROLE PERSONNEL PROCEDURES

I. DEFINITIONS

“Adopted Fiscal Procedures” means all fiscal procedures required to be used by the Department of Corrections whether in Kentucky Revised Statutes, Kentucky Administrative Regulation, or other form.

“Adopted Personnel Procedures” means all personnel procedures required to be used by the Department of Corrections whether in Kentucky Revised Statutes, Kentucky Administrative Regulation, or other form.

II. POLICY and PROCEDURES

A. The Division of Probation and Parole shall abide by all personnel statutes and regulations regarding the appointment and promotion of personnel to all merit positions.

1. The means for selection shall include:

- a. Promotion from within using the Commonwealth’s Internal Mobility System
- b. Lateral transfer of merit employee’s under the same pay grade or job classification
- c. Selection through the Merit System’s register process

2. The Division of Probation and Parole shall appoint all personnel selected pursuant to sections a. and c. above to a probationary period of six months. Lateral transfers and demotions shall not be subject to such a probationary period.

B. The Division of Probation and Parole shall provide a career development plan for each employee. This shall be accomplished by:

Policy Number	Effective Date	Page
27-01-02	August 1, 2006	2

1. Compliance with the annual employee evaluation system established by adopted personnel procedures.
 - a. The annual evaluation shall include a discussion of ways the employee can improve job performance and progress within the employee's job classification.
 - b. The evaluation shall be completed based upon criteria defined by adopted personnel procedures.
 - c. The evaluation shall be completed at least annually for the employee.
 2. The continuation of the Probation and Parole Officers' Salary Improvement Program for all sworn personnel as set forth in KRS 196.076 and House Bill 379.
 3. The promotion of appropriate internal mobility candidates.
- C. The Division of Probation and Parole shall abide by all personnel statutes and regulations regarding the discipline and dismissal of all merit employees including, but not limited to:
1. The right to file grievances regarding some aspects of the employee's work environment.
 2. The right to appeal disciplinary actions.
 3. The right to exhaust appeals and request an open and formal hearing prior to termination or demotion.
- D. The Division of Probation and Parole shall abide by all personnel statutes and regulations regarding the maintenance of personnel files including but not limited to:
1. An employee may examine his personnel file.
 2. An employee may challenge the accuracy of any materials contained in his personnel file. The employee may make a written statement and have it attached to the challenged document and placed in the permanent personnel file with the document. The employee may file a personnel action in accordance with the rules of the Personnel Board.

Policy Number	Effective Date	Page
27-01-02	August 1, 2006	3

- E. The Division of Probation and Parole shall abide by all adopted fiscal procedures with regard to the reimbursement of employee expenses including:
1. Travel expenses approved by supervisory or management staff.
 2. Expenses incurred by telecommuters as outlined in Corrections Policy and Procedure 27-02-02 and approved by the Director of Probation and Parole or her designee.
 3. Other expenses as approved by the Director of Probation and Parole or her designee.